

ADULTS IN THE YOUTH SERVICES DEPARTMENT

Adults may use the Youth Services Department of the Library when accompanied by a child using the Department or when searching for or retrieving library materials. Unaccompanied adults who are searching for or retrieving materials may be asked to move elsewhere in the Library to review the materials.

The Library reserves the right to determine who can be in and remain in the Youth Services Department of the Library and adults who are not accompanied by children may be asked by staff to use the Library facilities, services, and equipment in other areas of the Library.
